

Thank you for supporting the RVAS Birdathon 2023

Please pledge or donate by using this form or go to www.roguevalleyaudubon.org.

You can either make a donation of a set amount or pledge a certain payment per species seen. That way you can do your own Birdathon species list, put together your own Birdathon team, or support a team of your favorite birders.

If you are participating as a birder, please ask friends and team members to pledge as well.
